

Summer Projects:

Project	Worth
Sequential Three	120
10 Sketches	100
Museum Visit	80
	300 Total Points

Sketchbook: 100 Pts

Sketchbook: Using a sketchbook draw 10 sketches spending at least one-five hours on each sketch. 10 observational drawings. Please do not use a photograph as a reference. Must be from life. If you need to get proportional training such as proportions of the human body or face, you may practice that in between your 10 sketches.

Objective to observational drawing: Practice drawing by looking and studying things in life in order to understand the relation to the object to the world around that object, the light and shadow in, on and around that object while skillfully applying observations onto paper.

1. A plant, or something that grows outside
2. Something outside that has depth
3. A repeating feature or features of a person (eye, nose, ears, mouth)
4. A person or people
5. A hand or hands
6. A figure or figures (a human body)
7. The inside of a room
8. Fabric and folds
9. The outside of a building.
10. A self-portrait looking in the mirror.
  - o The Sketchbook is worth 40 points (10 points each sketch)
